

Archdiocese of Cashel & Emly

3 Year Safeguarding Strategy Plan January 2023 to December 2025

Introduction.

The Archdiocese recognises that to keep children and vulnerable adults safe, policies, procedures and plans must be implemented and their effectiveness monitored and evaluated. In order to do this the Archdiocese has outlined the following strategy. This strategy is in place and operational.

1.0 Establishment of Safeguarding Structures.

The Archdiocese of Cashel & Emly under the Archbishop has established the following structures in order to ensure its safeguarding policies, procedures and plans are fully implemented and monitored.

Safe-Environment Safeguarding Structure in the Archdiocese of Cashel & Emly

- Archbishop – Overall responsibility for Safeguarding in the Archdiocese.
- Director of Safeguarding – To Support the Archbishop in the development, implementation and monitoring of best practice in Safeguarding throughout the parishes and agencies of the Archdiocese. (See expand role in appendix of this document)
- Parish Priest – Overall responsibility at parish level for Safeguarding.
- Local Safeguarding Representative (LSR) – Every Parish in the Archdiocese will appoint at least one lay person as Local Safeguarding Representative in order to promote safeguarding in conjunction with the Parish Priest by:
 - Raising Awareness of Diocesan Safeguarding Policies & Procedures.
 - Ensure contact details for Designated Persons are widely available.
 - Ensure church activities are in line with best practice.
- Safeguarding Committee – To support and advise the Archbishop and Director of Safeguarding for the Archdiocese on:
 - The provision of training.
 - The safe recruitment of volunteers and staff within their service area.
 - Creating, maintaining and monitoring a safe environment for children and adults in all aspects of Church life and activity.
 - Advising on the human resources required for implementing best practice.

- Safeguarding Trainers – The Archdiocese has two Accredited Trainers who are responsible for the provision of all aspects of Safeguarding training to Clergy, Staff, Volunteers, Parents and Children/Young People throughout the Archdiocese.

Case Management Structure in the Archdiocese of Cashel & Emly.

- Archbishop – Overall responsibility for Safeguarding in the Archdiocese.
- Designated Liaison Persons (DLP) – The Archdiocese has appointed a Designated Liaison Persons. (See Appendix for role description).
- Statutory Authorities – The Archdiocese has established collaborative and professional links with key safeguarding personnel in the Tusla, HSE and liaises closely with An Garda Síochána.
- Support Person(s) – The Archdiocese has appointed a Support Person who is available to those who make an allegation/disclosure of abuse. (See Appendix for expanded role).
- Adviser – The Archdiocese has appointed an Adviser who will be available to the respondent. (See Appendix for expanded role)

2.0 Implementation and Review of Diocesan Safeguarding Policies & Procedures.

The Archdiocese has implemented a Diocesan Safeguarding Children Policy and Procedures Document and An adult Safeguarding Policy (Adults at risk of abuse) in line with Statutory and Church Guidelines. These document are widely disseminated and made available to all Clergy, Staff, Volunteers, Diocesan Agencies, Committees, Parents & Children/Young People.

The Diocesan Child safeguarding Policy and Procedures are operational and are made known to the whole church community including children/young people. All people, clergy, Staff & Volunteers, who through their ministry in the Catholic Church within the Archdiocese of Cashel & Emly have direct contact with children/young people, are obliged to sign-up to this policy document and all that it contains. The Diocesan Policy & Procedures Document will be reviewed and updated in accordance with the Diocesan Review Policy for the document.

3.0 Implementation, Monitoring & Evaluation of Safeguarding Policies & Procedures.

The Archdiocese through its structures as outlined above will continually endeavour to implement, monitor & evaluate its Safeguarding Policies and Procedures. This will be achieved in the following ways:

- Best Practice Audits of Parishes – The Archdiocese through its Safeguarding Committee, led by the Director of Safeguarding will conduct regular audits of all parishes in the Archdiocese to ensure all pertinent aspects of Safeguarding Policies and Procedures are being implemented and monitored. The audit will include the completion of a written review questionnaire encompassing all aspects of Safeguarding Policies & Procedures. This will be completed by the Parish Priest & Local Safeguarding Representative and returned to Office of Safeguarding in the Archdiocese.
- The Diocesan Office of Safeguarding will facilitate Implementation and Monitoring Workshops for Priests and Local Safeguarding representatives.
- Training will be provided by the Trainers to all staff and volunteers to ensure they are familiar and competent in all matters concerning Safeguarding.
- The Policy and Procedures Documents will be reviewed annually and updated a least every three years in line with the Diocesan Review Policy for the document, taking on board the views and opinions of staff, volunteers, children/young people and aligned to Legislation, Statutory & Church Guidelines.
- The Archdiocese will constantly be attentive to the communication of its Safeguarding Policies & Procedures and use all methods at its disposal to ensure that it is communicated as clearly and as widely as possible. Communication methods will include:

- Dissemination of Safeguarding Policy & Procedures Document in various formats to Clergy, Staff, Volunteers, Diocesan Agencies, Parent & Children/Young People.
- Raising Awareness conferences for Parishes/Deaneries.
- Posters.
- Website.
- Brochures/Flyers.
- Newsletters.
- Region Papers when deemed appropriate.
- Parish Newsletters/Bulletins.
- Letters/Emails to Key Safeguarding Personnel.
- Meetings/Briefing with Key Safeguarding Personnel.
- Liaising with local Tusla, HSE, Gardaí and the NBSCCC.

The Archdiocese recognises that all strategies and plans must be dynamic and, so it will review its strategy and plan on an on-going basis.
